

How many places of articulation does the language have for coronal plosives?

