

If the language has glottalized obstruents, does it also have a phonemic distinction between glottalized and non-glottalized fricatives?

