

If the language has glottalized obstruents (<yes> to Glot-01a), does it have a phonemic distinction between glottalized and non-glottalized resonants?

