

If the language has glottalized resonants, does it have a phonemic distinction between glottalized and non-glottalized glides?

☐ no

- yes