

Does the language have at least one retroflex plosive, if there are at least 2 places of articulation for coronal plosives?

