

If the language has glottalized resonants, does it have a phonemic distinction between glottalized and nonglottalized glides?

yes